The perfect sunless tan: Tanning tips from a pro

By Andrea Karr

All women can benefit from a sunless tan, whether they have fair, medium or dark skin.

That's one of the unexpected things that Katie Quinn, owner of Kona Tanning Company in California and body makeup pro at Victoria's Secret Fashion Shows, told me on the phone. A faux glow can literally give anyone's skin—even those with dark colouring—a golden tint and an even appearance. As Quinn says, it makes the skin look smooth as "butter."

Whether you're planning for a special event, a beach getaway or a romantic night at home, a faux tan could be your ticket to a sunny outlook—because who wouldn't feel happy with smooth, even, golden skin? We've selected our favourite tanning tips from Quinn, and they're all here to help you achieve the perfect sunless tan.
