365 Things To Do In Costa Mesa – Kona Tanning – Day 240

Welcome to Kona Tanning!

Are you looking to get an amazing tan without spending time in the sun? I found it! (Look like a Victoria's Secret model! Seriously - this is the secret!)

Kona Tanning recently had their grand opening shindig and it was flawless. Note: you can't go wrong when you plan party with free booze, a crowd of party people in white hats, a choreographed hip hop dance mix and a fashion show. Seriously, welcome to Costa Mesa!

The Kona Tanning crew does a fab job. I have never gone in for a spray tan (heck I've never even been on a tanning bed-I prefer the sun) but I recently had a chance to try a spray tan and I couldn't be happier. After months of not hitting the beach and turning back into my natural ghost complexion, the spray tan revitalized my skin. It took less than a half hour to be professionally spray tanned by a makeup artist who really took her time to make sure everything looked great. EVERYONE has been complimenting me on it, so I am in turn complimenting Kona Tanning on their service and product!

Special Alert!

This week you can get 20% off and get spray tanned for just $52! Offer good til March 19, 2011. Thanks to Katie Quinn for keeping me in the loop on this new Costa Mesa venue!
